IV. Total number of interviewees for all full-time vacancies filled during period per source:

WIUM/WIUW-FM:

WQPT-TV: Eight were interviewed, but the two job searches failed and were not filled.

V. Outreach activities during period:

WIUM/WIUW-FM

Haddock Scholarship: WIUM/WIUW established the Haddock Scholarship in 1985 and awards funds annually to a student or students with an interest in radio broadcasting. The Haddock Scholarship is awarded during fall semester (October of each year). This year, one $1,250 scholarship was awarded to production assistant Micah Stewart.

Talent Grant/Tuition Waiver Awards, Student Payroll and Graduate Assistantships: WIUM/WIUW awards talent grant and tuition waiver stipends to students who wish to pursue a career in radio broadcasting and gain practical experience in the field by working at WIUM/WIUW and the subcarrier Radio Information Service. Recipients of grant and waiver awards work under the direction of full-time professional staff as board operators, announcers, hosts, recording technicians, general assignment reporters, features writers, editors, music librarians, news anchors, and outreach and programming assistants. Twelve Western Illinois University students are currently employed in such paid positions.

Illinois News Broadcasters Association and other Outreach Involvement: WIUM/WIUW encourages its student reporters to join the Illinois News Broadcasters Association, attend its conferences, and apply for INBA scholarships and awards. WIUM/WIUW full-time reporters routinely speak to journalism and broadcasting classes about the stations and broadcast opportunities, and the stations offer tours to student classes each semester.

WQPT-TV

Broadcast Scholarship: WQPT offers an annually $500 scholarship to a student pursuing the Broadcast field. Selection is by written application coordinated and reviewed by a WQPT Selection committee. We did not have any qualified applicants for the 2016 Broadcast Scholarship.

EEO On-Air Spot: WQPT regularly broadcasts a spot to encourage organizations to contact the station if they wish to receive lists of job openings. The spot runs, on average, about 20 times a week.

Internship Program

WQPT offered seven unpaid professional internships to students of Western Illinois University. These students gained experience in accounting, marketing, military affairs, educational outreach and event planning. Thirteen student were interviewed for these position. WQPT also offers 15 Ambassador Positions to act as extensions of our staff in outreach activities. The WQPT/PBS Ambassador program provides students hands-on experience in the fields of marketing, public affairs, event planning and much more. This invaluable opportunity allows students to gain real world experience while representing one of America's must trusted brands—Public Television This year they presented 7 Sesame Street workshops at 7 locations, including our outlying areas of Rock Falls, Galesburg, Blue Grass and Geneseo. The WQPT Ambassador program reached a total of 3,133 children.

Diversity Training

WQPT staff and advisory board participated in 3 training opportunities this year. Members of WQPT's Community Advisory Board as well as all staff attended a discussion with Christopher Whitt.

WQPT was a media sponsor of the Greater Quad Cities Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's quarterly multi-cultural speaker series. Staff members and an intern attend.

WQPT hosted Juan Sepulveda, Vice President of Station Relations. He met with staff, board and community leaders about community activism and the importance of creating relationships in our underserved communities
